

ASK Fire/Burn Safety Information

Store matches and lighters out of children's reach and sight, preferably in a locked cabinet or up high out of their reach.

Source: National Fire Protection Association

Never use lighters or matches as a source of amusement for children since they may imitate you.

Source: National Fire Protection Association

Make a family fire escape plan and designate a safe place to meet outside if there's a fire.

Source: Centers for Disease Control & Prevention

Put your escape plan to the test with a fire drill at least twice a year. If the real thing ever happens, everyone in the family will know exactly what to do.

Source: National Fire Protection Association

Frayed wires can cause fires. Make sure to replace all worn, old or damaged appliance cords immediately.

Source: FireSafety.gov

Fires and burns are the 5th leading cause of unintentional injury fatalities in the U.S.

Source: Centers for Disease Control & Prevention

65% of all fatal victims of child-playing fires were children 5 years old or younger.

Source: National Fire Protection Association

Approximately 59% of fatal residential fires occur in homes without smoke alarms.

Source: Centers for Disease Control & Prevention

Children 4 and under are one of the highest risk groups for fire-related injuries and deaths.

Source: Centers for Disease Control & Prevention

Most residential fires occur during the winter months.

Source: Centers for Disease Control & Prevention

